

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Diana Riboli and Davide Torri
2	“The War Has Just Begun.” Nature’s Fury Against Neocolonial “Spirit/s”: Shamanic Perceptions of Natural Disasters in Comparative Perspective	19
	Diana Riboli
3	The Spirits of Extractivism: Non-Human Meddling, Shamanic Diplomacy, and Cosmo-Political Strategy Among the Urarina (Peruvian Amazon)	43
	Emanuele Fabiano
4	Batek Cosmopolitics in the Early Twenty-First Century	75
	Ivan Tacey
5	Jinn Pinn Dance in the Floods: Perceptions of Flood Disasters Among the Kalasha of Pakistan	101
	Taj Khan Kalash

6	Eco-Cosmologies: Renewable Energy	129
	Pamela J. Stewart and Andrew J. Strathern
7	The Earth and the Tree in Alekh Shamanism in Koraput/Odisha	141
	Lidia Guzy
8	Sacred, Alive, Dangerous, and Endangered: Humans, Non-humans, and Landscape in the Himalayas	169
	Davide Torri
9	Shamanism, Magic, and Indigenous Ontologies: Eco-Critical Perspectives on Environmental Changes in India	189
	Stefano Beggiora
10	Unblocking the Blockage Between Earth and Heaven: Shamanic Space for Cultural Intimacy in China	213
	Naran Bilik
11	Burying Gold, Digging the Past: Remembering Ma Bufang Regime in Qinghai (PRC)	233
	Valentina Punzi
	Afterword: Reflections	255
	Index	259